

sub-division of Sylvan Vista; thence along the East line of the said Sylvan Vista to the North line of the sub-division of Waterford; thence along or following the East line of said Waterford sub-division to the North West corner of Addison Church grave yard; thence along the West line of said grave yard to the Addison Chapel road; thence in a straight line across Addison Chapel road to a point in the middle or center of the alley next nearest to the North East corner of C. M. Dorsey's home property; thence along the center or the alley going South to a point in the of said alley to a point next nearest the South East corner of the James P. Ware home property; thence West along the South line of the said James P. Ware's property to the South East corner of the same; thence in a straight line to the South East corner of lot 13 in the Weisner sub-division; thence West along the South line of said lot 13 in a straight line and to a point along the fence dividing the Weisner pasture from the Mary W. Slocum lots; thence North West along said pasture fence line to Eastern Avenue and North along Eastern Avenue to the point of beginning.

The above mentioned territory shall be divided into six wards as follows:

Ward 1. Ward one shall consist of that territory of the Fairmount Heights sub-division covered by block A., block B., block C., block D., block E., block F., block L., and block P., as recorded among the land records of Prince George's County, Maryland.

Ward 2. Ward two shall consist of that territory of the sub-division of Fairmount Heights covered by block G., block H., block I., block K., to the South line of the property of James P. Ware, block M., block N., and block O., as recorded among the land records of Prince George's County, Maryland.

Ward 3. Ward three shall consist of all the territory known as North Fairmount Heights as per plat recorded among the land records of Prince George's County, Maryland.

Ward 4. Ward four shall consist of all that territory known as West Fairmount Heights as per plat of that sub-division recorded among the land records of Prince George's County, Maryland.

Ward 5. Ward five shall consist of that territory known as Waterford as per plat recorded among the land records of Prince George's County, Maryland.